

JOB POSTING: DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR

Agricenter International is an established Memphis-based non-profit that has brought $524M of economic impact to the region is seeking an experienced Director of Development. The ideal candidate will have responsibilities for the planning, organizing and directing of all fundraising, including major gifts and planned giving programs; capital campaigns; and special events. As a senior level position, the Director will work closely with the President and Board of Directors on all development and fundraising endeavors.

Qualifications include:

- Minimum 5 years' experience in professional fundraising.
- Required bachelor's degree; an advanced degree or CFRE are a plus.
- Demonstrated managerial experience, public speaking, writing, and interpersonal skills.
- Knowledge of fundraising software or similar software / databases helpful.
- Must be available to work on organizational events. Some evening and weekend work will be expected; limited travel may be required
- Agri-business or agricultural related experience is a plus

Salary range: $60,000 to $80,000

If you would enjoy being the face of a major agricultural non-profit with a focus on research, education and conservation; visited by over 1.3M people per year—send your resume and salary range requirements to: AMP Associates, a.pokrandt1@att.net.